26 Myrtle Street Normanhurst NSW

3 1 2

Original Home with Further Scope on Large Block

Occupying a generous sized block for the area (approx. 764sqm), this single level brick and tile home presents family buyers or renovators with the opportunity to modernise and/or extend or potentially build the dream in a great location (STCA). It's positioned on a leafy corner with dual access and large gardens, has a traditional three-bedroom design and includes undercover off-street parking. Ready for a new family to make it their own, the home is tucked away from everything yet only minutes to shops and transport, the area's many public, private and independent schools, and access to the M1/NorthConnex to the city and central coast.

-Quiet leafy residential neighbourhood with established family homes
